Travel

GOTHENBURG

Secret YVONNE GORDON, but it throws up all types, another of his specialities is a hot oyster, but when it comes to 30 oysters, been to the fish market at 6.30am.
Rosenlund Canal. Johan Malm, who owns Restaurang Gabriel here, tells me 8 August 2015

WHAT TO PACK

- Many city streets are cobbled
- Low-heeled shoes for to the sidewalk - bag and umbrella for the rain. There's an art muse and the Stora Theatre. Trams rattle along 3 must-dos...

- For more tips, deals and inspiration visit independent.ie/travel

GETTING THERE

SAS (flysas.com) flies from Dublin to Gothenburg for €122 each way (direct flights on Saturdays from August 15 to September 26). Norwegian (norwegian.com) also flies from London Gatwick and Ryanair (ryanair.com) flies from London. Stansted. For more information on

WILLIAM'S

at Hotel Pigalle. At Atelier — a funky, French-themed attic at Hotel

WHERE TO STAY

WHAT TO EAT

DINE IN STYLE

At Atelier — a funky, French-themed attic at Hotel

PACK

- Don't forget your swimming togs
- Sea temperatures on the islands can reach up to 21°C in summer. Many city streets are cobbled, and there are free
spots, cafés and garden, with a view of the cobbled streets.

WALK

- There are plenty of cycle paths in Gothenburg. Bike
- Norwegisches Nationaltheater, a concert hall, a theatre and Liseberg
- There's an art museum, a concert hall, a theatre and Liseberg
- Summer is Swedish Krona. What to do

RENT A BIKE

- There are plenty of cycle paths in Gothenburg. Bike
- Norwegisches Nationaltheater, a concert hall, a theatre and Liseberg
- There's an art museum, a concert hall, a theatre and Liseberg
- Summer is Swedish Krona. What to do

TRAVEL

- Fresh cod, crayfish, salmon,
- smoked, hake, mackerel, trout — there's all lined up in a fish market shaped like a certain church beside Gothenburg's Rosenlund Canal. Johan Malm, who
owns Restaurang Gabriel here, tells me he selects his fish from this selection every morning — the fishmonger will have been to the fish market at 6.30am.

3 must-dos...

- Tempting as it is to re
- To the wooden houses, however, I'm custom
- To explore the island and there are
- Ices for guests, so I sit and eat
- With AC/DC on the speakers, and a man
- A Gothic church beside Gothenburg's
- Over on Kyrkogatan, a crate of apples
- The only noise is birdsong and
- From here, I can see tiny islands, little red
- Of cars on these islands — and reach the
- Sea temperatures on the islands can reach up to 21°C in summer. Many city streets are cobbled,
and there are free
spots, cafés and
garden, with a view of the cobbled streets.

PACK

- Don't forget your swimming togs
- Sea temperatures on the islands can reach up to 21°C in summer. Many city streets are cobbled,
and there are free
spots, cafés and
garden, with a view of the cobbled streets.